

How safe is your child's sport club?

5 questions you should be asking

2 Does the club have a safeguarding policy?

Your club should have a policy in place to safeguard children. It should be available for you to read, ideally on their website.

4 Who can you talk to?

All clubs should have a person responsible for safeguarding. They should let you know who they are and how to contact them if you need to.

1 Have the staff been checked out?

The club should have a safe recruitment process for hiring staff. They should be able to tell you what's involved in this process.

3 What happens if there's an accident?

Ask the club if they have a first aider. They should also have your contact details in case of an emergency.

5 What training is there?

Your club can tell you what level of training their coaches have. Safeguarding training is also available to anyone working with children.
